Pascal Chaumeil's "The Heartbreaker" is a heartwarming story of love and loss. Pierre (Romain Duris) is a charming ladies' man who has never had trouble finding a girlfriend. That is, until he meets the one woman who can resist his charms: the beautiful and elusive Lucy (Audrey Tautou). Undeterred by her rejection, Pierre sets out to win her over by any means necessary.

But as he gets to know her better, Pierre begins to realize that there may be more to Lucy than meets the eye. Could it be that she's not immune to his charms after all? And if so, what will happen when she finally gives in?

"The Heartbreaker" is a charming and funny film that will leave you rooting for the underdog all the way.
